

Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court (NWCC) EDI Claims Release 3.1 Announcement
Update of Initial processing of Electronic Data Interchange reports during transition to Claims Release 3.1

Date: 5/21/2019

The original transition plan indicates that NWCC will return initial acknowledgements on May 23, 2019. NWCC is providing the following information to allow the trading partners to act accordingly; therefore, NWCC will extend this evaluation period by one day and will not return acknowledgements until Friday May 24, 2019. The court will return acknowledgements in the usual form and manner once the court has confirmed the transition process has been successfully completed.

For any legacy claims where the claim administrator has a JCN that is less than 9 digits, the claim administrator will need to add leading zeros to the JCN to make it 9 digits to match the claim with a NE History record. For example: If JCN in your system = 1234567, you will need to make it 001234567.

NWCC has notified parties of Trading Partner profile updates that will be needed to ensure the record will be accepted when acknowledgements are returned. We will continue to allow updates nightly, so please get these updated to avoid rejections when acknowledgements are returned on Friday the 24th.
